

Where to Start?

The Process...

Anyone can order a painting from Elegantly Painted. Please email Lavone' a small version of your image for approval. Include the size you wish to order and your contact information along with your phone number. Once approved, you will receive a Paypal invoice to pay via credit card, Paypal balance, etc... As soon as payment is received you will be emailed the "Release for Painting". Read the directions carefully and be sure to fill out all the information completely. Please note: You MUST own the copyright to the image or the photographer who took the image must sign the release in order for your image to be painted. Once your release is received...Lavone' will contact you for the preconsultation of your painting. Please feel free to ask questions. *If you are a Professional Photographer and wish to offer Lavone's artwork to your clients...You MUST provide your website address in your email in order to receive special PRO Pricing. Once you have become an established client of Elegantly Painted and order frequently, you will receive a private login for the online stores.

Turn-Around Time for Paintings

Turn around time for paintings (to paint the image only) is usually 1-2 weeks. During the holiday seasons times may vary. Please inquire before you place your order.

You may place a "rush order" for an additional fee.

If you are ordering a finishing option for your painting (from Elegantly Painted by Lavone') such as a Fine Art Canvas Gallery Wrap or on a stretcher frame for custom framing please allow additional time for delivery. We also offer the finishing option of Fine Art Velvet Paper or Watercolor Paper. Please inquire for pricing.
